

I can't believe you are even considering the petition from the NAB to block Sattelite Radio - Why on earth would they be against the broadcasting of traffic and weather or any thing else. George Bush was supposed to be for competition - what is going on here?